Eminent evangelical theologian provides a basic introduction to the faith that traces the story of redemption through the Bible. Sharing The Steps To True And Lasting Freedom The Freedom In Christ Course is a straightforward way to implement effective discipleship within a church, small group, or Bible study. It has been effectively used and appreciated by Christians of all backgrounds, from those who have been believers for many years to those who are new followers of Jesus. Over 350,000 people have gone through the curriculum in English, and it has been translated into over 25 languages. Course participants will learn to: · take hold of the truth of exactly what happened when they became Christians · resolve personal and spiritual issues that may be holding them back · be transformed by renewing their minds · make following Jesus a way of life Use the accompanying videos presented by Steve Goss, Nancy Maldonado, and Daryl Fitzgerald (available separately on DVD) or present it yourself using the scripts in this Leader's Guide and the PowerPoint presentations (free downloads available). The biblical principles taught in the course can help you establish a firm foundation for discipleship that will last a lifetime. Participants will need a Participant's Guide and The Steps To Freedom In Christ (available separately). Dr. Neil T. Anderson is the founder and president emeritus of Freedom In Christ Ministries, which has offices and representatives in 40 countries. He was formerly chairman of the Practical Theology Department at Talbot School of Theology and has five earned degrees, including two doctorates. Dr. Anderson and his wife live in Franklin, Tennessee. For more information see www.ficm.org or www.ficminternational.org. Steve Goss is international director of Freedom In Christ Ministries. Under his leadership the ministry has gone from operating in 7 countries to operating in nearly 40 countries. Steve teaches extensively in churches in the UK and overseas and at conferences. He lives in Berkshire, England, with his wife, Zoe, and two daughters. This Leader's Guide will enable both the experienced and novice group leader to help adults review and apply the material found in Encountering Jesus: A Life-Changing Look at the Son of God. While both the book and the study guide can be used in independent devotions and studies, this manual will help make the Bible learning experience even more meaningful as participants discover the joys of fellowship and acquiring insight in group settings. Discovering and embracing one's identity has proven to be a long, lonely, rough, and at times, dangerous road for today's teenagers. It's likely you've chosen this study to use with your youth group because you care deeply and want the teenagers within your sphere of influence to find the answers to their identity questions in Jesus Christ. The I Am study is not a quick fix for your teenagers' needs. It is a handcrafted tool that, when used by compassionate, caring, and committed adults, will ignite their imagination and excitement for whom their Creator says they are and the purpose for which they were designed. I Am will likely raise more questions than it answers, and that's intentional. Don't feel the need to make sure all the loose ends are tied up at the conclusion of your youth gathering. Allow your teens the opportunity to leave with ideas and truths on which to reflect and wrestle as they use the daily devotionals provided in the Groove: I Am Student Journal. The Groove Bible study series invites teens to learn the essentials of their faith, own their story, and engage the world in serving Jesus. Each topical study consists of four weekly sessions that are easy to lead and relate to life issues teens face. With up to 48 weeks available, Groove is great for Sunday and mid-week gatherings for both large and small groups as well as retreats. The leader guide contains everything needed to lead teens through a Groove study, including teaching outlines, leader notes, Bible background, reflections, and parent communication. "Got Jesus?" Leader's Guide is an amazing young adult small group curriculum! This excellent resource is well written and illustrated with astounding relevance to the needs of emerging adults. This guide is proficient with instructions and information that will aid the development of persons as small group leaders. This book will challenge leaders and those who desire to be leaders to greater faith in Jesus while guiding young people to Him. Within its pages you would find the following: A complete Leader's Manual with step-by-step guidelines on how to be a successful small group leader A complete 10 week curriculum A highly interactive experiential guide for leading a young adult Bible study An extremely adaptable small group experience designed for leading newbies and more experienced Christians Simple, easy-to-use sample lessons demonstrated in full color Fun, powerful, riveting activities that provide the leader with a perfect Segway into the study of the scriptures Unique lessons structured and designed to create Christian bonding Each lesson is carefully constructed to help young adults in their quest to be Christ like. Dr. Ricardo V. Bain I is the author of this young adult leader's guide and small group journey. He also produced a participant's guide to accompany this resource. It is that tool that you'd put in the hands of your small group members to influence them for Christ. Dr. Bain is a youth and young adult pastor currently with the S.D.A. church in the Greater New York Conference. He has over 18 years of experience relating to developing young people. He is married to Tameka Monique Bain, and this nuptial union produced two children: Ricardo Vernon Bain II and Zoe-Madison Bain. This family enjoys each other with meaningful togetherness!" Throughout his letters, the apostle Paul tells us to expect that our lives will take the same shape as Jesus' life. If you plot Jesus' life on a map, you'll see the letter J emerge: his life moves downward into death and then upward into resurrection. This is the J-Curve. This is Paul's map through suffering into joy. United with Christ is the first of four Bible studies tracing out the J-Curve in Scripture and exploring how we participate in this pattern with Christ in our daily lives. Participant manual also available. Many Christians long for a successful ministry, a higher spiritual life, and a closer personal relationship with the living Lord. The secret to such an abundant life is to abide in Christ. While the concept might sound mystical, it is really very practical in application, when rightly understood. Andrew Murray amplifies the words of Jesus regarding His commandment to abide in Him. The reader is taken deeper into the mysteries of the soul and communion with Jesus. The objective of abiding in Christ is to bring glory to God the Father-and then for the believer to bear much spiritual fruit for the cause and Kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ. Come, then, and study some grand thoughts on the blessed life of fellowship with the Son of God. In this Guide, you will encounter "Review," "Reflection," and "Memorization" sections, which are designed for evaluation and discussion with a student by the Leader (or Mentor). The "Heart Work" and "Personal Application" sections are designed for personal honesty and self-analysis. After all, as the apostle Paul reminds us, "For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged" (1 Cor. 11:31). By the end of this study both the Leader and the Student should be familiar with no less than six basic Bible doctrines, three spiritual laws, and nine spiritual secrets. If you want to know what it means to abide in Christ, this is a must-have book. The Lord's Prayer is the most famous prayer in the world and is remarkably simple and brief. In only 70 words Jesus covers the breadth of the Christian message and experience. Most Christians already know it by heart and can easily recite it. In fact, that might be part of the problem—it is so well known and easily recited that most of us never even think about the words as we rattle them off silently or in a corporate worship setting. In Pray Like Jesus, pastor and author Don Underwood reexamines the content of the Lord's Prayer and discovers within it insightful spiritual guidance for developing a rich devotional life. And the end of each chapter, he suggest ideas for making the prayer a part of daily spiritual disciplines. The Leader Guide contains everything needed to guide a group through the six-week study including session plans and discussion questions, as well as multiple format options. We live in a world that craves justice. But what transforms us to truly seek justice, even at cost to ourselves? And what enables us to do so in a way that also offers mercy? Stephen Um opens up the book of Micah, showing how God's call to his people then is God's call to his people now-a call to so enjoy the gospel that we are freed to seek true justice and offer real mercy. This minor prophet is a voice for our times. This Expository Guide takes you verse by verse through the text in an accessible and applied way. It is less academic than a traditional commentary and can be read cover-to-cover, used in personal devotions, used to lead small group studies, or used for sermon preparation. There is an accompanying Good Book Guide for small group Bible studies. The Way of Grace Leader's Guide provides all the tools needed to lead small groups through this nine-week journey. You'll reflect on "the way of grace" in our lives through the lens of eight encounters between Jesus and various people described in John's Gospel. In the guide you'll find: * An explanation of spiritual formation * A description of the leadership skills called for when leading formational groups * A complete list of materials needed for each weekly meeting * Weekly outlines with full content for opening worship, sharing of insights, deeper explorations, and closing worship The Companions in Christ leader's guides are the most complete and user-friendly guides available. What do Christian teenagers believe today about Jesus Christ? And what difference does that belief make in their life? Research shows that most teenagers do not understand the basic core beliefs of Christianity and often express misgivings of their own faith. How do we help teens connect with the significance and importance of Jesus Christ? Jesus is a four-week study designed to help teens encounter the basic truths about who Jesus is and why that matters in their lives. Through group study and daily devotions, found in the Groove: Jesus Student Journal, teenagers will begin to understand the significance of Christ and how that relates to their daily walk. The Groove Bible study series invites teens to learn the essentials of their faith, own their story, and engage the world in serving Jesus. Each topical study consists of four weekly sessions that are easy to lead and relate to life issues teens face. With up to 48 weeks available, Groove is great for Sunday and mid-week gatherings for both large and small groups as well as retreats. The leader guide contains everything needed to lead teens through a Groove study, including teaching outlines, leader notes, Bible background, reflections, and parent communication. WHAT IF TRUSTING AND FOLLOWING JESUS BECAME THE DNA OF YOUR CHURCH?

The short companion to this book--Trust and Follow Jesus--has proven to be an effective model for disciple making. The content is simple, effective, and reproducible for all disciples. This companion book is the perfect volume for leaders who want to go deeper and let Trust and Follow Jesus shape their churches. The format of this guide encourages in-depth teaching and repetition of study--both of which allow the handbook material to become the DNA of disciples and disciple makers in your church. Each chapter contains two levels of material: an introductory, bullet point section and a comprehensive and thorough discussion of the main points from the handbook. The content walks new and mature disciples through the essentials of the Christian faith: from knowing who God is and why Scripture is trustworthy, to committing to Jesus' lordship and becoming a disciple maker for him. "Trust and Follow Jesus hits the mark. Through this book, disciples are equipped with the biblical doctrine and practical application needed to grow in Christ and embrace a lifestyle of disciple making." -- Reggie Rice, Director of Adult Ministries, Christ Church of the Valley "Discipleship needs a solid start. Trust and Follow Jesus is the resource I use to build a strong foundation--every time." -- Joanne Kraft, Author, National Speaker, Founder of Discipleship for Women "This leader's guide combines theology and practicality in a way that will effectively deepen and mobilize disciples." -- Daniel McCoy, PhD, Editorial Director, Renew.org BOBBY HARRINGTON Bobby is the point-leader of Renew.org and Discipleship.org, both of which are collaborative, disciple making organizations. He is the founding pastor of Harpeth Christian Church with graduate degrees from both Harding School of Theology and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has authored or co-authored more than ten books on discipleship, including DiscipleShift, The Disciple Maker's Handbook, and Becoming a Disciple Maker. He lives in the Nashville area with his wife, children, and grandchildren. The Companions in Christ Leader's Guide may be the most user-friendly and comprehensive guide available. It provides leaders with a complete outline for each of the 28 weekly meetings, full content for each meeting including simple worship experiences for opening and closing times, music suggestions, lists of items needed each week, and notice of any unique needs in future weeks. All weekly group gatherings follow the same general outline: -- Opening time of worship and centering -- Sharing insights from the weekly readings and exercises -- Break -- Deeper explorations through a group experience -- Closing worship Leading a spiritual formation group requires distinctive leadership skills. The Leader's Guide helps leaders identify and develop such qualities as patience, trust, listening, and acceptance. The leader guide provides two kinds of information: (1) suggestions for weekly group sessions; (2) information to enhance leadership skills, to support group building and maintenance, and to make effective use of the CHRISTIAN BELIEVER components. A one-page session plan for each of the thirty weeks follows a set procedure with an amount of time indicated for each step. Each session plan provides guidance for group activities that make use of the daily preparation members have made, and questions for discussion. Group activities are designed to focus on content and help persons connect Scripture, doctrine, believing, and living. The leader guide assumes that: The leader makes the same preparation for the weekly group session as the other members of the group. Study and discussion in the weekly session is done mainly in small groups. The leader both guides the process and participates with other group members in the small-group study and discussion. The leader is not an information-giver or lecturer. The leader and the group members have access to the same content for study and discussion—the assigned Scripture, selections from the book of Readings, the study manual, and the video presentations. A study of CHRISTIAN BELIEVER can renew lives and congregations. What does living for Jesus look like in the everyday stuff of life? Many Christians have unwittingly embraced the idea that “church” is a once-a-week event rather than a community of Spirit-empowered people; that “ministry” is what pastors do on Sundays rather than the 24/7 calling of all believers; and that “discipleship” is a program rather than the normal state of every follower of Jesus. Drawing on his experience as a pastor and church planter, Jeff Vanderstelt wants us to see that there’s more—much more—to the Christian life than sitting in a pew once a week. God has called his people to something bigger: a view of the Christian life that encompasses the ordinary, the extraordinary, and everything in between. Packed full of biblical teaching, compelling stories, and real-world advice, this book will remind you that Jesus is filling the world with his presence through the everyday lives of everyday people... People just like you. An innovative, year long study based on character traits taught throughout scripture and designed to challenge and build mentors with a heart and passion for God. Churches have made many converts but far too few real disciples. Many Christians struggle to take hold of basic biblical truth and live it out. We often take a painfully long time to mature. This is not because we lack resources or teaching, but because we struggle to connect with truth This is where the Freedom in Christ course comes in. It is specifically designed to help Christians take hold of who they are in Christ, resolve personal and spiritual conflicts through genuine repentance, and move on to maturity. This revised and updated edition of the popular course takes into account comments from the many who have used and reused it, and is accompanied by a completely new 3-disk DVD set. PRICE INCLUDES VAT This is the Leader Guide for the Four Views of the End Times small group study. What does the Bible actually say about the end times that lead to the return of Jesus Christ? The differing ideas that divide believers into four major points-of-view are examined in the Four Views of the End Times video-based small group study. This six-session study takes a look at four different Revelation time lines and tackles Dispensational Premillennialism, Postmillennialism, Historic Premillennialism, and Amillennialism. For each view, the study includes a definition, supporting Scriptures, a time line of the view's popularity, and a sampling of Christian leaders supporting that view. Common questions and answers are handled as part of each session, so you don't need to be the expert to be the leader. This is the Leader Guide only, not the entire kit. About speaker and author, Dr. Timothy Paul Jones: Dr. Jones serves as Professor of Leadership and Church Ministry at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. Greg Ogden presents 25 sessions on growing in spiritual maturity. Second edition includes a new foreword by the author. These studies are for both individuals and groups. My husband and I have been born again Christians going on four years. God has gifted us both with poetry and song. God also gave me the courage to sing them aloud in churches. I find these songs to be messages to the world, to those in the dark. Some are prayers, and some are song expressions to touch hearts and souls. They are praises and for thanking God for reaching those on drugs and alcohol. Expressing awareness that God is real, and Jesus is his son and he does love us and hears our prayers. All we have to do is ask him in our hearts and to forgive us of our sins. The poem Holy Spirit sent a message about our house, being in sin and God proving it was true. God speaks nothing but truth. There always is a poem that expresses my true feelings about how I feel now being born again. I am a believer of Jesus Christ, Son of God and that he is always there! I hope these poems will help open your eyes and ears to the word of God. And you will follow his light to his everlasting life. We feel the poems are God's messages to all the people in this world. I know he changed our life together. Praying to him daily and waiting on him to move. He always comes through. Not in our time, but in his time. Even when I feel down, I never stop praying to God. He always lifts me back up. I ask him daily to give me wisdom, knowledge, and understanding so I can read the Bible and stand on his word. I ask for the understanding of parables. God uses our vessels to get his messages out through the poems and songs. I hope you find them a great up lift from God. At its core, discipleship is a multifaceted, communal, and holistic process as the gospel transforms our head, heart, and hands. Part of discipleship is growing in our understanding of the gospel with others--God calls us to Discover who he is, what he has done, who we are, and how we live as we read the Bible. Secondly, we're called into relationships that Nurture the ongoing journey of repentance and faith. Lastly, Christ calls us to Act as we grow in obedience. D-N-A groups are intentional on walking through this process of Discover, Nurture, and Act with other men and women. Growing in Christ Together is a sixteen week curriculum designed to help groups of men and women initiate this life-long process of discipleship. The Leadership Guide is curated from pastors across the Soma Family of Churches and comes with nearly two decades of experience leading D-N-A groups. Consider this curriculum as training wheels for creating a discipleship environment. Churches have made many converts but far too few real disciples. Many Christians struggle to take hold of basic biblical truth and live it out. We often take a painfully long time to mature. This is not because we lack resources or teaching, but because we struggle to connect with truth This is where the Freedom in Christ course comes in. PRICE INCLUDES VAT Pastor and author Matt Rawle is on a mission. He sees Christ all around him-in books, movies, TV shows, rock music-and he wants to share what he sees. As Matt says, "God offers the raw ingredients, and 'culture' is whatever we cook up." Hollywood Jesus is pastor and author Matt Rawle's study of Jesus and Christ figures in films including Cool Hand Luke, The Lion King, The Truman Show, and One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. Explore what happens when script meets Scripture, when pop culture encounters the King of kings and Lord of lords. This Leader Guide contains everything needed to guide a group through the Participant Book and DVD. It includes session plans and discussion questions, as well as format options. Hollywood Jesus is part of The Pop in Culture Series of Bible studies in which Matt Rawle stirs up a tasty gumbo of insight, humor, and inspiration based on some of your favorite pop culture classics. A Participant Book, a DVD featuring four sessions with the author, and a Worship Resources Flash Drive also are available for group study. The third volume in Adam Hamilton's Bible study trilogy on the life of Jesus. The Leader's Guide contains the information necessary to present this program with or without the accompanying DVD. This course can be used in a variety of settings, including Sunday school, small-group Bible studies, and one-on-one counseling. Most of us have a basic knowledge of the term incarnation, but do we really understand what it meant to Christ? To the people he met? What about its implications for us today? Claim the amazing truth of the incarnation as you work through When Christ Was Here, a Bible study designed to explore the wonders of Christ's humanity and deity. Each lesson of When Christ Was Here unfolds a new aspect of Christ's incarnation and its practical effect on his ministry. Since he was man as well as God, he could identify with and comfort those suffering from discouragement, failure, pain, and rejection. Each time Christ met someone in need, his compassion for them overflowed into action. May these lessons of his selfless love inspire you to trust your Savior's care and serve him with renewed devotion. - Back cover. The companion to Living in the Victory of Jesus!: Bible Lessons to Deepen Faith, the Leaders Guide helps class leaders prepare to examine the lives of powerful biblical characters with students. Pilgrim is a major new teaching and discipleship resource from the Church of England. It will help enquirers and new Christians explore what it means to travel through life with Jesus Christ. A Christian course for the twenty-first century, Pilgrim offers an approach of participation, not persuasion. Enquirers are encouraged to practice the ancient disciplines of biblical reflection and prayer, exploring key texts that have helped people since the earliest days of the Christian faith. Believing that the Christian faith is primarily about relationship, Pilgrim aims to lay a foundation for a lifetime of learning more about God's love revealed in Jesus Christ and what it means to be his disciple. Assuming little or no knowledge of the Christian faith, Pilgrim can be used at any point on the journey of discipleship and by every tradition in the Church of England. Pilgrim is made up of two parts: Follow and Grow. Each consists of four short courses and a leaders' guide. Follow introduces the Christian faith for complete beginners, while Grow aims to develop a deeper level of discipleship in those who have turned to Christ. Each short course contains six-sessions, supported by online audio-visual resources. All sessions combine a simple framework prayer, reflection on the Bible in the lectio divina style, an article by a modern writer, and time for questions and reflection. The Leaders' Guide explains the aims and approach of Pilgrim and offers advice and support for running the sessions. The Way of Blessedness Leader's Guide provides leaders with a complete outline and content for each of the weekly meetings focusing on the Beatitudes. It also includes a Weekly Needs-at-a-Glance introductory page to make preparation for each meeting simple and quick. Each of the guides in the Companions in Christ series assumes leaders are new to the formational group process and includes the full introductory material, guidance for leading formational groups, and a description of the unique leadership skills needed. The leader's guides for each of the resources in the series are described as being the most complete and user-friendly guides available. Let go of feeling like you are not a "good enough" Christian and find freedom in Christ by studying Paul's letter to the Galatians in Breakthrough by Barb Roose. Have you ever felt that being a good Christian means you've got to follow a bunch of rules and measure up? If so, you aren't alone! In this six-week Bible study of Galatians, Barb Roose shows us that even the believers in the early church struggled to let go of rule-keeping and performance in order to embrace God's free gift of grace. In his letter to the Galatians, Paul pours out his heart and faith to set them straight, addressing so many of the same questions and problems we still face today, such as... - Who has led you to believe you have to follow rules and "measure up"? - Why do you think you have to be perfect for God? - Does God only show up or love you when you "get it right"? If you've ever struggled with these questions or felt trapped by rules or religion, this study will provide a path to discover your freedom in Christ. Through this study women will learn to: - Stop trying to measure up and embrace God's grace - Distinguish between lies and truth - Embrace God's promise of freedom Components for this six-week Bible study, each available separately, include a Participant Workbook, a Leader Guide, and video sessions with six 25-minute segments (with closed captioning). Churches have made many converts but far too few real disciples. Many Christians struggle to take hold of basic biblical truth and live it out. We often take a painfully long time to mature. This is not because we lack resources or teaching, but because we struggle to connect with truth This is where the Freedom in Christ course comes in. It is specifically designed to help Christians take hold of who they are in Christ, resolve personal and spiritual conflicts through genuine repentance, and move on to maturity. More and more young adults have opted out of Christianity and the church. The reason? Christians. When young adults talk about the problems they have with Christianity and the church, they often name certain attitudes and behaviors they believe are practiced too often by Christians: judging others, condemning people of other faiths, rejecting science, injecting politics into faith, and being anti-homosexual. With his familiar style, Adam Hamilton tackles these issues and addresses the how's and why's of Christians getting it right when it comes to being Christ in the world. When Christians Get It Wrong Leader Guide offers session goals, leader helps, activities, Scriptures, and more, and is intended to be used with the DVD.
