Over 100 Weeks on the New York Times Bestseller List! 44 State Award Lists! Discover what James Patterson calls "the coolest library in all the world" in this fun-filled, action-packed bestseller from the much-loved co-author of I Funny and Treasure Hunters! "A worthy successor to....Willy Wonka." —Booklist, Starred Review When Kyle learns that the world's most famous game maker, Luigi Lemoncello, has designed the town's new library and is having an invitation-only lock-in on opening night, he's determined to be there! But the tricky part isn't getting into the library—it's getting out. Because when morning comes, the doors stay locked. Kyle and the other kids must solve every clue and figure out every secret puzzle to find the hidden escape route! Don't miss bonus content in the back of the book—extra puzzles, an author Q&A, and more! And look for the puzzle-packed sequels—Mr. Lemoncello's Library Olympics and Mr. Lemoncello's Great Library Race! "Full of puzzles to think about, puns to groan at ...this solid, tightly plotted read is a winner for readers and game-players alike." —Kirkus Reviews, Starred Review Fifty-two scavenger hunt games for youth groups, field trips, children's birthday parties and summer activities. "Turning everyday moments into adventures" For years, I've designed custom scavenger hunts for my children whenever we go for walks, car rides, to the museum, or even driving around looking at Halloween decorations! I've found that giving my children a scavenger hunt helps them to stay focused in the moment and engaged with the outside world, and turns everyday moments into adventures. This book is intended to be a yearlong adventure for children. It's unlikely they'll find everything in the book quickly--and that's part of the goal. I want this book to be a long-term experience, encouraging children to connect with their outside world. I hope this book inspires kids to search, explore, and observe their worlds throughout the year, even during routine activities like driving to school, or walking around the block. For children learning to read, I also hope that the pages help reinforce vocabulary words for some of the places and things they see every day. The goal isn't to find every single item in the book (although that would be a fun achievement!), but rather to keep a log of all the amazing things children see throughout the year. I hope the pages spur discussions between children and their caregivers--questions like "Mom, is that a suspension bridge?", "Dad, is that a Welder?", or "Grandma, can you show me the Big Dipper constellation?" In the back of the book, you'll find journal pages where your children can add their own discoveries! Snap a photo anytime they notice something interesting in their environment--it could be a mural, a statue, a bug, a stormy night, or any other remarkable observations. Then, print the photo 2"x2" and tape or glue it onto the grey squares, and if your child is able to write, ask them to label their discovery (or write the label for them). Alternatively, your child can draw a picture of their discoveries. On the last page, they can personalize the discoveries they've made by answering some questions about their favorite season, weather, food & more. To mark the boxes, you can use markers or pens--or you can pick up stickers (sized .5"x.5") and attach them with a paperclip to the book, so they are always on hand to mark the boxes. Use a permanent marker for each child to write their name on the top of their book, so the books don't get mixed up between siblings or friends! Keep the scavenger hunt with you everyday, however you travel--in the car, in the stroller, or in a backpack, so that kids have access to their scavenger hunt whenever they spot something new! I hope this book turns everyday activities into adventures, conversations and opportunities for learning. If you take any photos with your book along the way, please share with me on Instagram@dianalevine! I can't wait to see where your book takes you. With gratitude, Diana

It's hard to resist a scavenger hunt. Give kids a list of things to find, and they naturally want to turn it into a game and start checking things off. Add in an outdoor and nature twist, and the game is elevated to a whole new level—and what an amazing opportunity to engage kids and families with nature in a whole new way. The Ultimate Book of Scavenger Hunts will help turn every outdoor outing into a scavenger hunt, with plenty of things for your family to look for, discover, and learn about. Geared towards families with kids ages 4-10, the hunts are geared to just about any location—from city to farm to beach to mountains. The book includes a leveled difficulty rating system so you can find both easy and difficult items within each hunt (1 being easy, 2 medium, 3 hard). Each hunt comes complete with factoids and information about the items on the list, and each item is accompanied by a colorful spot illustration so that the hunter can easily identify what they are looking for. A companion deck to the book "The Creative Photographer". This set of 24 Image Exploration cards includes hands-on photography exercises to encourage you to take your photography to a more creative level. You can choose a theme to play with every week or month, or use the cards as inspiration for a Photo Scavenger Hunt. You will be inspired not only by the exercises, but by the images on the cards. These cards are suitable for both the beginner and experienced photographer. Greene County Public Library 2015 Photo Scavenger Hunt. Judged by Cynthia Lord.

In this cozy bedtime story, follow a child and his grandma through a winter landscape to explore how the Earth goes to sleep for winter. Spot the sleeping animals as the tale unfolds, then learn about their hibernation habits from the information pages at the end. Co-authors Sean Taylor (picture book author) and Alex Morss (ecologist, journalist, and educator) offer a gentle introduction to the concept of hibernation. In the frosty, quiet forest, the snow blankets the ground and the trees have shed their leaves. Where have all the animals gone? Are they asleep too? In each cutaway scene, see what the child cannot--that underground below his feet are dens with sleeping creatures, and within the hollow trunks of trees, animals are nesting. After the story, annotated illustrations explain the hibernation facts for each animal and what they will do when they wake up for spring. Cozy up as you expand you and your child's knowledge of the natural world. For such a small town, there's a lot to see in Silverton, Colorado. Walking Silverton will help you explore the town and learn a bit about the people, places, and events that are part of its rich history. Think of this tour as a scavenger hunt through time and events. At designated stops, you'll have a clue photo to guide you to interesting buildings and landmarks. Turn the page, and you'll find a collection of photos and stories that will enlighten, amuse, and inform you. Who knew history could be so much fun?

Rachel's uncle is terrible at hiding the afikomen. It's always too easy to find! So this year, Rachel decides to take over. She finds the perfect hiding spot and creates a series of clues for her cousins to follow. Can you guess where the hunt will lead them? Discover and deepen your creative style through the process of creating 100 small mixed-media paintings. In Fresh Paint, creative influencer, workshop leader, and author of Brave Intuitive Painting and Creative Revolution, Flora Bowley, and her collaborator and fellow artist, Lynzee Lynx, offer transformational, accessible, and lasting ways to infuse more meaning and authenticity into your artwork. For years, Flora and Lynzee have witnessed their students struggling to find their own voices. The desire is there, but coming up with innovative and unique ways to express yourself can feel daunting. In response to this persistent challenge and fueled by their passion for authenticity, they spent years cultivating and distilling a potent curriculum to support creative seekers looking for more integrity, depth, and originality in their work. Their online course Fresh Paint was the result, and now with this book, you too can explore how finding your creative voice translates into a more courageous, inspired, empowered, nourishing, and world-changing way of living and making art. Fresh Paint uses mixed-media art projects along with prompts for movement, meditation, and writing to explore personal experience, individual preference, ancestry, intuition, and body wisdom. Through the process of creating 100 small mixed-media paintings based on these inquiries, your style will reveal itself to you, and your artmaking will be more satisfying and fun. If you're ready to infuse more meaning, personal story, and satisfaction into your work, while truly setting yourself apart from the rest and avoiding the common pitfall of making work that looks and feels derivative of other artists', this book is for you. Welcome to Fresh Paint, an inspiring adventure all about discovering and developing a unique creative style! Looking for a new way to explore the St. Louis region? Get out your magnifying glass, or zoom in on your camera to find these buildings, businesses, statues, and architectural details on a scavenger hunt! After years of crying in her sweet tea, Regina finally has her life in order. She has a great job, wonderful friends, and a successful fiancé. But when the town council decides to do something special for this year's Pickle Festival, life gets a little briny. As a former Pickle Queen, Regina has a chance to win fifty thousand dollars if she participates in a three-day photo scavenger hunt, but she must compete with her former Pickle King, Clint. He's the guy who ripped her heart out when he left to play professional baseball and never looked back. Clint Sorrow is as famous for starting bar fights as he is for stealing bases. Years ago, he vowed to never step foot back in Smithville, but when he finds out there's a chance his baseball contract may not be renewed, he jumps at the opportunity to show his team he's not a liability. As a bonus, he'll get to spend time with Regina, the girl he left, and never stopped loving. When Clint gets wind of Regina's engagement, he decides he must stop it before she does something they'll both regret. But Clint has a secret that will not only destroy her plans but may cause him to be benched for life. Some photographic projects to simply have fun. The majority of photography amateurs will start with great enthusiasm but will tend to leave it once the fun wears out. Step Write Up provides hands-on exercises for parents, teachers and for any workshop leader endeavoring to bring 21st century collaboration and writing skills into the classroom or homeschool environment. To accomplish this, the authors have assembled lessons that can be modified for your own specific personalities, uses, and grade levels. Some are icebreakers that are aimed at promoting communication and collaborative teamwork. Some are lessons that provide for individual creativity and then lead into opportunities for group sharing and critiquing. And the authors go even further, showing how the products of these creative efforts can even carry us into areas of initiative and entrepreneurialism. "Learning and innovation skills increasingly are being recognized as those that separate students who are prepared for a more and more complex life and work environments in the 21st century, and those who are not. A focus on creativity, critical thinking, communication and collaboration is essential to prepare students for the future." —Partnership for 21st Century Skills CONTENTS ICEBREAKERS & EXERCISES COMMUNICATION & EXERCISES CROSS-CULTURAL COMMUNICATION COLLABORATION twists, and juicy secrets -- perfect for fans of One of Us is Lying and Knives Out. Avery Grambs has a plan for a better future: survive high school, win a scholarship, and get out. But her fortunes change in an instant when billionaire Tobias Hawthorne dies and leaves Avery virtually his entire fortune. The catch? Avery has no idea why -- or even who Tobias Hawthorne is. To receive her inheritance, Avery must move into sprawling, secret passage-filled Hawthorne House, where every room bears the old man's touch -- and his love of puzzles, riddles, and codes. Unfortunately for Avery, Hawthorne House is also occupied by the family that Tobias Hawthorne just dispossessed. This includes the four Hawthorne grandsons: dangerous, magnetic, brilliant boys who grew up with every expectation that one day, they would inherit billions. Their apparent Grayson Hawthorne is convinced that Avery must be a conwoman, and he's determined to take her down. His brother, Jameson, views her as their grandfather's last hurrah: a twisted riddle, a puzzle to be solved. Caught in a world of wealth and privilege with danger around every turn, Avery will have to play the game herself just to survive. Avery's story continues in The Hawthorne Legacy and The Final Gambit "Barbie hosts a scavenger hunt in this Little Golden Storybook edition that brings favorite stories to children."--Amazon.com

Learn While You Play With These Fun, Creative Activities & Games From two experienced educators and moms, 100 Fun & Easy Learning Games for Kids prepares your children to thrive in school and life the fun way by using guided play at home to teach important learning topics—reading, writing, math, science, art, music and global studies. Turn off the TV and beat boredom blues with these clever activities that are quick and easy to set up with common household materials. The huge variety of activities means you can choose from high-energy group games full of laughter and delight, or quiet activities that kids can complete on their own. All activities highlight the skill they teach, and some are marked with a symbol whether they are good for on-the-go learning or if they incorporate movement for kids to get their wiggles out. In Zip-Line Letters, children learn letter sounds as the letters zoom across the room. In Parachute Subtraction, place foam balls in a parachute, then kids shake the parachute and practice subtraction as they count how many balls fall off. Kids will have so much fun, they won't even realize they're gaining important skills! The activities are easy to adapt for all ages and skill levels. 100 Fun & Easy Learning Games for Kids is the solution for parents—as well as teachers, caregivers or relatives—to help kids realize how fun learning can be and develop what they'll need to do well wherever life takes them. “Amy Webb found her true love after a search that's both charmingly romantic and relentlessly data-driven. Anyone who uses online dating sites must read her funny, fascinating book.”—Gretchen Rubin, #1 New York Times bestselling author of The Happiness Project After yet another disastrous date, Amy Webb was preparing to cancel her JDate membership when epiphany struck: her standards weren't too high, she just wasn't approaching the process the right way. Using her gift for data strategy, she found which keywords were digital-man magnets, analyzed photos, and then adjusted her (female) profile to make the most of that intel. Then began the deluge—dozens of men who actually met her own stringent requirements wanted to meet her. Among them: her future husband, now the father of her child. What does Mom do while her little ones explore the world around them? She snaps, of course. Mom stands by with her camera while kids enjoy everything from splashing in the pool and learning to ride a bike to baking a cake and snuggling up to sleep. Bright colors, cheerful illustrations and playful rhymes engage kids who've ever felt they're being followed by the mom-arazzi. What's more, in heartwarming verse, Mom Snaps reveals the endearing reason why Mom snaps so much: To preserve childhood's sweet memories for a lifetime. The tale begins over three-hundred years ago, when the Fair People—the goblins, fairies, dragons, and other fabled and fantastic creatures of a dozen lands—fled the Old World for the New, seeking haven from the ways of Man. With them came their precious jewels: diamonds, rubies, emeralds, pearls... But then the Fair People vanished, taking with them their twelve fabulous treasures. And they remained hidden until now... Across North America, these twelve treasures, over ten-thousand dollars in precious jewels in 1982 dollars, are buried. The key to finding each can be found within the twelve full-color paintings and verses of THE SECRET. Are you smart enough? THE SECRET: A TREASURE HUNT was published in 1982. The year before publication, the author and publisher Byron Preiss had traveled to 12 locations in the continental U.S. (and possibly Canada) to secretly bury a dozen ceramic casques. Each casque contained a small key that could be redeemed for one of 12 jewels Preiss kept in a safe deposit box in New York. The key to finding the casques was to match one of 12 paintings to one of 12 poetic verses, solve the resulting riddle, and start digging. Since 1982, only two of the 12 casques have been recovered. The first was located in Grant Park, Chicago, in 1984 by a group of students. The second was unearthed in 2004 in Cleveland by two members of the Quest4Treasure forum.
